Application by donor-conceived person or guardian to access information held on the Human Assisted Reproductive Technology Register

BDM404

Use this form if you:

- were born as a result of an assisted reproductive procedure performed through a fertility service provider, using sperm, eggs or embryos, and
- want to access information about yourself or your donor held on the Human Assisted Reproductive Technology (HART) Register.

Hei mua i te tononga Before you apply

Who can use this application form

You can fill out and submit this application form if you are:

- a donor-conceived person who is aged 18 or older
- a donor-conceived person aged 16 or 17 who has the approval of the Family Court and has attached a copy of the order from the Family Court, or
- a guardian of a donor-conceived person, if the donor-conceived person is under 18 years of age and does not have the approval of the Family Court to complete the form.

What you need to provide

You will need to provide a:

- certified true copy of your photo identity document
- The BDM130 General identity declaration form on pages 5 to 6 of this form
- The completed payment details on page 7 of this form
- BDM405 Authorisation for disclosure of information to agent form, if the information is being sent to an agent, such as a lawyer, acting on your behalf
- copy of the order from the Family Court, if you are aged 16 or 17.

Your photo identity document can be your driver licence or the photo page from your passport.

A certified true copy is a photocopy that has been stamped or endorsed by an authorised person. This confirms that the copy is a true copy of the original document.

An authorised person must be:

- a Justice of the Peace (JP)
- a solicitor or notary public (you may have to pay for their services), or
- a Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the District Court or the High Court, or authorised staff in some government agencies.

Requested information

If the requested information is available on the HART Register, you will receive a printout of the information you request on page 4 of this form.

The printout will be typed from the registration. A printout is not a legal document.

Services a counsellor can offer

We recommend that you consult with a counsellor of your choice before submitting this form.

A counsellor can:

- help you to consider the implications of providing and accessing information
- support you if you contact your donor or a donor-conceived person related to the same donor, if a link is established
- answer questions about how others have approached the issue, and what seems to work best.

Counselling may be able to be arranged through your fertility service provider, or with an independent counsellor.
