Application for New Zealand Citizenship - Child (under 16 years)

USE THIS FORM if you are applying for a child who is under 16 years of age. Both parents must give their consent before New Zealand citizenship can be granted to a child. You can also apply online at www.govt.nz/citizenship

To be eligible for a grant of citizenship, your child must generally meet the requirements below*:

- your child is entitled to reside indefinitely in New Zealand; AND has been present in New Zealand:
 - for at least 1,350 days with New Zealand residence during the 5 years immediately before you make your child's application; and
 - for at least 240 days with New Zealand residence in each of those 5 years; and
 - fully met any conditions imposed by Immigration New Zealand (INZ) in regard to your child's residence status

'New Zealand residence' means your child has a residence visa or a permanent residence visa issued by INZ or your child is an Australian citizen or permanent resident or your child is a New Zealand citizen by descent. If at least one parent is, or is about to become a New Zealand citizen, your child does not need to meet the 'presence in New Zealand' requirement as long as your child has New Zealand residency.

- your child is of good character (not required if under 14 years)
- your child understands the responsibilities and privileges of New Zealand citizenship (not required if under 14 years)
- your child is able to understand and speak English (not required if under 14 years)
- you intend for your child to continue to reside in New Zealand, if granted citizenship

What you need to complete this application

- Your child's birth certificate or the country's equivalent.
- Your child's current passport(s) (or their most recent if it has expired).
- 2 identical recent colour photos of your child.
- Someone to act as a witness who is over 16 years of age and has a valid New Zealand passport.
- The application fee of $235.10 per child.

Sometimes we may ask you to send us other original documents. Please make sure the information you provide is true and correct.

If it is later found that you have provided false or misleading information, your child may be denied/lose New Zealand citizenship, or you may face criminal charges, or both.

*Refer to page 3 of the guide notes if your child does not meet all the requirements for citizenship.

Disclaimer: The questions in this quick quiz are based on the legal requirements for a citizenship by grant application. The result from the quiz is only a general indicator to give you some idea of your child's ability to be eligible for a grant of New Zealand citizenship. The quiz questions do not form part of the formal assessment process.

A formal assessment of your child's ability to meet each relevant requirement will be carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs, should you choose to apply for citizenship for your child. The result from the quick quiz should not be read as legal advice. For more detailed information, please read the rest of the guide notes. For information about our fees/refunds see page 8 of the guide notes.

How to fill in the application form

If you are applying for a child (under 16 years), please fill in this form and use the guide notes to help you.

How should I answer these questions?

Tell the truth

The Minister of Internal Affairs will consider the information you give in the application form. It is very important that you answer all questions truthfully. If you do not, your child may be denied/lose their New Zealand citizenship, or you may face criminal charges, or both.

Answer all questions

You must answer every question and provide as much information as you can. If you need more space to answer a question, please use another piece of paper. If you do not answer a question, your child's application may take longer to process because we will need to contact you and we may have to send the form back to you so that you can complete it.

What if I do not know the answer?

If you do not know the answer to a question, use these guide notes to help you. If you cannot find the answer in the guide notes, please contact us (contact details on application page 9) and we will try to help you find the information you need.

What if I need to tell you something that you have not asked me about?

If there is anything you think we should know about your child, it is important that you tell us. You can tell us this information in Q.27, or you can use another piece of paper and attach it to your child's application.

What if I do not have any of the documents you are asking for?

You must give us all the original documents asked for in the application form. If you do not give us any documents, the processing of your child's application will not start until you do.

If you do not have some of the original documents you need, you will have to get them from the country you came from, before you apply for New Zealand citizenship for your child. You can contact your local embassy or ask a relative in that country for help. It will not be a good enough reason for you to send photocopies of documents or no documents because of the cost, inconvenience or time it takes for you to get originals.

If your child has been granted refugee status by Immigration New Zealand and does not have all the documents you need, please contact us.

What if my child does not meet the requirements for citizenship, appropriate to their age?

Exceptional circumstances and public interest

Your child might be able to get citizenship, even if they do not meet some of the requirements, if they have exceptional circumstances of a humanitarian or other nature that mean it would be in the public interest for your child to be granted citizenship. You will need to show that there will be an advantage or benefit for New Zealand from your child becoming a citizen because of their exceptional circumstances. Your child may be considered to have exceptional circumstances if their situation is well outside the normal run of circumstances found in citizenship grant cases generally.

Waivers of other requirements

The Minister of Internal Affairs can sometimes reduce or waive a requirement if your child does not meet it.

Presence in New Zealand

If your child does not meet the presence requirement, they may still be able to get citizenship if they have been here for at least 450 days in the last 20 months. You will have to prove they have exceptional circumstances that justify a reduction in the presence requirement. They may be considered to have exceptional circumstances if their situation is well outside the normal run of circumstances found in citizenship grant cases generally.

English

Your child may still be able to get citizenship if you can prove they would find learning English too hard because of a variety of reasons, including not having enough education, having a disability or being too sick.

If you want more information about these options please contact us (contact details on application page 9).

3 Date of birth

6 Travel documents

Print the document numbers of all the passports/ travel documents that your child has held in the last five years and the name of the country they are from. Include expired passports/ travel documents with that your child has been endorsed on.

7 Other names

We need to know all the names your child has ever used during their life, so we can verify their identity. If your child has ever used any other names tick 'yes' and print them in the box. If your child has officially changed their name, at any time, you will need to provide us with proof of this name change. If the other names your child uses are not on any official documents you must list them on the form, but you do not need to provide proof of them.

8-9 Parents' details

Print both parents' first and middle names, surnames and citizenships in the boxes. Parent means a birth or legal adoptive mother or father. Do not include step-parents or guardians.

10 Your child's residential address

Print the address at which your child is currently living.

11 Your child's postal address

This is where we will send your child's documents, papers and letters, if you do not want them sent to your home address.

12 Travel plans

If your child intends to travel outside New Zealand in the next 12 months, provide their travel plans.

13 Is your child aged 14 years or older?

If your child is 14 or 15 years old, tick 'yes' and go to Q.14. The requirements are different for children once they turn 14 years old. Please answer Q.14-22 if your child is 14 or 15 years old. If your child is aged under 14, tick 'no' and go to Q.23.

14 Is English your child's first language?

If your child grew up in an English-speaking country, tick 'yes' and go to Q.16. If your child did not grow up in an English-speaking country, tick 'no' and go to Q.16.

15 Conversational English

If your child can speak English in everyday situations, such as talking to their teacher and their friends, tick 'yes'.

You will need to prove that your child can speak English in everyday situations.

If your child is with you when you lodge their application in person, you do not need to provide documented proof that your child can speak English.

If your child cannot speak English in everyday situations, tick 'no'. If your child is unable to speak English in everyday situations, your child's application may not be approved, unless they would suffer undue hardship for reasons such as their level of education or if they have a learning disability.

16-21 If your child is aged 14 years or older you must answer all of these questions on their behalf so we can confirm they are of good character.

Being of good character is a requirement of citizenship. To determine whether your child is of good character we will do background checks with the New Zealand Police and other agencies in New Zealand and overseas. You could also be asked to provide us with an overseas police clearance for your child.

If your child has had 100 or more demerit points in the last 2 years and/or if they have had a significant history of infringements and fines, this may affect the outcome of their application.

A 'yes' answer to any of these questions does not automatically disqualify your child from getting New Zealand citizenship. However, if you provide false or misleading information, or withhold relevant information your child could be denied/lose their New Zealand citizenship or you could face criminal charges, or both. You do not need to tell us about any previous convictions received in New Zealand that may be now concealed under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004.

Clean Slate Act

You may be eligible to conceal your child's record if they have:

1. Had no convictions within the past seven years; and
2. Never been in prison (or other custodial sentence); and
3. Never been detained in a mental institution instead of being sentenced; and
4. Not been convicted of certain specified offences (e.g. relating to sexual offences); and
5. Paid all fines, costs, compensation and reparation imposed by the court; and
6. Never been disqualified indefinitely from holding or obtaining a driver licence.

If your child is eligible under the clean slate scheme, you can answer 'no' to any question about their criminal record. If you are uncertain whether you are able to conceal your child's record, please contact the Ministry of Justice online at www.justice.govt.nz/services or call them on (+64 4) 918 88 00 for an information pamphlet.

16 Previous convictions

Tick 'yes' if your child has been convicted or found guilty of an offence against the law in

New Zealand or any other country. Include convictions even if your child has paid fines, or served sentences for them. You must include traffic convictions when answering this question.

If you tick 'yes' you will need to send us a letter of explanation and attach it to the application. We need to know what happened, what sentence your child received, what country it happened in, and the date your child was convicted.

17 Pending charges

Tick 'yes' if your child has committed any offence against the law of New Zealand or another country for which they have yet to be sentenced for in court. Include a letter of explanation with as much detail as possible and attach it to your child's application.

18 Legal action against your child by a government agency

Read the list of agencies carefully, and tick 'yes' if your child has ever been investigated, reviewed or had legal action taken against them by those organisations in New Zealand or any other country.

19 Information provided to Immigration New Zealand

Tick 'yes' if you have ever provided false or misleading information to Immigration New Zealand (INZ) about your child. This includes not providing or telling INZ information that may have resulted in your child's visa application being declined. If you have ticked 'yes' you will need to include a letter of explanation and attach it to their application.

20 Terrorism

Tick 'yes' if your child has ever been involved in an activity that may have contributed to terrorism. It is important to mention anything you know that others may regard as terrorism.

If you tick 'yes' you will need to include a letter of explanation and attach to the application. You will need to tell us about your child's involvement, what the act of terrorism was, when it happened, and what organisation or group was responsible for carrying out the activity.

21 Making or using weapons

Tick 'yes' if your child has ever had any involvement in making or using biological, chemical, nuclear or radiological weapons. If you tick 'yes' you will need to write us a letter of explanation and attach it to the application. You will need to tell us about your child's involvement in making or using the weapons, the reasons for your child's involvement, what kind of weapons they were, when it happened, and what country this happened in.

22 War crime or a crime against humanity

Tick 'yes' if your child has ever committed a war crime or a crime against humanity.

If you tick 'yes' you will need to include a letter of explanation. We need to know what happened, who was involved, where it happened and what the outcome was.

23 Ceremonies – children 13 and under

Children 13 and under are welcome to attend a ceremony, but this is not a requirement. Their certificates can be sent to you in the mail.

24 Ceremonies – the Oath or Affirmation

The ceremony is an important part of becoming a citizen. During the ceremony new citizens are formally welcomed – usually by the mayor of your local area, or another official person.

Children 14 or over must attend a public ceremony to get citizenship. During the ceremony they will stand and read aloud a statement. The statement says that your child will be loyal to New Zealand.

Your child has a choice of two statements – either an oath or an affirmation.

Oath and Affirmation Statements

Oath of allegiance

"I [say your name] swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Charles the Third, King of New Zealand, his heirs and successors according to law, and that I will faithfully observe the laws of New Zealand and fulfil my duties as a New Zealand citizen. So help me God."

Oath of allegiance in te reo Māori

"Ko ahau, ko [say your name] e kī taurangi ana ka piri honga ahau, ka piri pono ki Te Arikiniui Kīngi Tiāre te Tuatoru, te Kīngi o Aotearoa, me ōna uri ake me ōna whakakapi e ai ki te ture, ā, ka aro piri honga ahau ki ngā ture o Aotearoa me te whakatutuki i āku mahi hei kirirarau o Aotearoa. Nō reira e te Atua, āwhinatia mai ahau."

Affirmation of allegiance

"I [say your name] affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King Charles the Third, King of New Zealand, his heirs and successors according to law, and that I will faithfully observe the laws of New Zealand and fulfil my duties as a New Zealand citizen."

Affirmation of allegiance in te reo Māori

"Ko ahau, ko [say your name] tēnei e whakaū pono ana ka piri honga ahau, ka piri pono ki Te Arikiniui Kīngi Tiāre te Tuatoru, te Kīngi o Aotearoa, me ōna uri ake me ōna whakakapi e ai ki te ture, ā, ka aro piri honga ahau ki ngā ture o Aotearoa me te whakatutuki i āku mahi hei kirirarau o Aotearoa."

25 Ceremonies – family

Tick 'yes' if your child is applying at the same time as the rest of your family and you want them to attend the same ceremony.

26 Special assistance

Tick 'yes' if your child requires special assistance to attend an interview or public ceremony. This could include needing access for a wheelchair, or help if your child is hearing impaired. Please print what assistance they will require in the table provided.

Tick 'no' if your child does not require special assistance.

27 Disclosure

You should include anything you think might impact on your child's ability to meet the requirements to become a citizen, such as your child's ability to meet the 'good character' requirement (if they are 14 years or over) any matters that are unclear about your child's identity, or anything else we should know. Complete this section if there is anything else we should know that might affect your child's application.

28 Parents' Consent and Declaration

Consent

Both parents must give consent for their child to get New Zealand citizenship as some countries do not allow dual citizenship. This may affect the child's current citizenship and future entitlements.

If only one parent is giving consent, this parent must have sole legal guardianship – this means that only one parent has a legal right of control over the child's upbringing. The Citizenship Office will require a court order that specifically refers to sole legal guardianship. A custody order on its own does not give sole legal guardianship over a child. If you are unsure, please contact us (contact details on application page 9) and someone will help you.

Declaration

The parent who completed the form needs to sign their name under the Parent Declaration as Parent 1. This section also allows the parent signing the declaration to give consent for their child to get New Zealand citizenship.

If your child is 14 years and over, or turns 14 at the time their application reaches the Minister of Internal Affairs for a decision, your child is required to be aware of the responsibilities and privileges of New Zealand citizenship.

When you sign the Parent Declaration, you are stating that your child is aware of the responsibilities and privileges of becoming a New Zealander.

Your Child's Privacy

The information we ask for in the application form is needed to see if your child meets the requirements for citizenship, to process your child's application, and for other lawful purposes to do with becoming a New Zealander. You do not have to give us any information that you do not want to. However, if we do not have enough information to determine whether your child can become a New Zealand citizen, their application may not be approved. The information you give us in the form is collected and held by the Department of Internal Affairs, PO Box 10680, Wellington, New Zealand.

You have a right to access your information and you can ask for it to be corrected if necessary under the Information Privacy Principles of the Privacy Act 2020. If a correction is not made, your request and our response will be put in your file.

Information held by the Citizenship Office can be used in authorised matching programmes. You can find the current list of agencies that can receive information from the Citizenship Office on our website at www.dia.govt.nz section of the guide notes before they fill in section 29. Your child's witness must fill in this section in their own handwriting and write your child's name on the back of one photo and sign and date the back of the photo.

The Treaty of Waitangi | Te Tiriti o Waitangi

Who can be your child's witness?

The witness must:

- have a valid New Zealand passport
- have known your child for 1 year or more, or since birth if your child is under a year old
- be 16 years of age or older
- not be related to you or part of your child's extended family group
- not live at the same address as your child.

This witness needs to provide their passport number, name, date of birth and contact details, including a day-time phone number.

Your child's witness writes on the back of one photo

Your child's witness must write your child's full name, their own signature and the date on the back of one photo. A business that takes passport photos will usually supply one photo with a pre-printed label on the back.

Witness declaration

Your child's witness must sign the declaration and date it to show they understand their obligations under the law.

Photo Information

You need to give us two identical colour photos that are less than six months old, and meet the listed requirements. We strongly recommend that you obtain your child's photos from a business that provides a passport photo service, as the business will help ensure that your child's photos meet our requirements.

Photos that do not meet our requirements will not be accepted. To help you to avoid some of the most common problems with photo quality, we have summarised the main requirements.

If you need more detailed information about photos, go online to www.govt.nz/citizenship or contact us.

Do not provide photocopies.

All of your child's original documents will be returned to you by courier or at an interview.

- If any documents are not in English and you already have an authorised translation, please send the translation in with the original document.
- If you do not have an authorised translation, send in your original documents and we will arrange for them to be translated. There is no charge for this unless you require a copy of the translation for your own purposes.
- If you require a copy of the translation, download a 'Request for Translation' from our website (www.govt.nz) and include this with your application.

31 A representative

If you want someone else to talk to us on your child's behalf, you will need to send us a signed letter giving your consent (this means they will talk to us about your child's application and we will send any letters or documents to them). You must tell us their name, postal address, phone number, email address and cell phone number (if they have any of these). Representatives can be any person you choose e.g. a family member, a friend, an immigration agent.

We will only contact your child's representative and all their documents will be sent to them.

32 Contact with the Department of Internal Affairs

If you change your address or travel overseas while we are processing your child's application, you must tell us. If the Citizenship Office is unable to contact you because you have moved or are overseas, or you do not respond, your child's application will be presented to the Minister of Internal Affairs for a decision based on the information available.

33 Lodging your child's application and documents

By post

If you want to post us your child's application, we advise you to use a 'track and trace' courier bag from New Zealand Post (within New Zealand) or registered mail (from overseas) to keep track of the original documents. We will send your child's documents back to you by courier.

Post your application to:

Department of Internal Affairs
PO Box 10680
Wellington 6140

34 Fees and payment

If you are paying for your child on their form, tick 'yes' and enter the details in the boxes provided.

If another applicant is paying for your child, tick 'no' and add your child's application fee of $235.10 to the other applicant's form.

All fees are in New Zealand dollars. All fees are subject to change. They are current at the date of publishing this form.

Withdrawals and refunds

If your child does not meet the requirements for citizenship, you can withdraw the application and get a partial refund of the child application fee. Generally, we will recommend that you withdraw and re-apply when they clearly meet all of the requirements (you will be advised of all your child's options by letter or email).

Part of the fee is kept to cover the costs of the initial processing of your application.
