Application for New Zealand citizenship by grant - Samoan Adult

Internal Affairs
Te Tari Taiwhenua

GNT007 - CBG Samoan Adult

Use this form if you are a Samoan citizen aged 16 years or over and want to apply for New Zealand citizenship by grant.

Check you meet the requirements and learn about how to apply at: govt.nz/citizenship

The easiest way to apply is online.

Before you apply

To be eligible for a grant of citizenship under the Citizenship (Western Samoa) Act 1982, you must meet the following criteria:

- You are a Samoan citizen; and
- You can provide proof of being physically present in New Zealand on 14 September 1982; or
- You have lawfully entered New Zealand after 14 September 1982 and have New Zealand residence.

‘Lawfully enter’ means that you had a permit to enter New Zealand and you used your own passport.

‘New Zealand residence’ means you have a current residence permit, permanent residence visa or residence visa issued by Immigration New Zealand (INZ), you are an Australian citizen or permanent resident, or you are a New Zealand citizen by descent.

What you need to complete this application

- Your original birth certificate or your country’s equivalent document.
- Your current passport(s) or most recent passport if it has expired.
- 2 identical colour photos of yourself that are less than 6 months old. We recommend you have your photos taken by a business that offers a passport photo service. These businesses can ensure your photos meet our requirements. Do not staple, glue or paper-clip photos to this application as this damages the photos.
- A person who can act as a witness for you. They must complete Section 7: Witness section.
- The application fee of $470.20 per adult aged 16 years or over.

We may ask you to send other documents

We do not accept photocopies.

If you do not have all the original documents you need, contact your local embassy or ask a relative in Samoa for help.

If you are living as a different gender than what appears on your birth record, passport or travel document, you must provide a statutory declaration with this application that states:

- the gender you want on your citizenship certificate (male, female or non-binary)
- how long you have been living with that gender identity.

Make sure the information you provide is true and correct. All questions must be answered. If you need more space to answer a question, use another piece of paper. If it is later found that you have provided false or misleading information, you may be denied citizenship or lose citizenship once it is granted, or face criminal charges, or both.

Withdrawals and refunds

If you do not meet the requirements for citizenship, you can withdraw the application and get a partial refund of your application fee. Part of the fee is kept to cover the costs of the initial processing of your application.

Privacy statement

Collection, authorisation, and use of information in support of this application

In order to process your citizenship application, we will need to collect some personal information from you. The decision to give us your information is your choice. If you do not give us all the information we need, we may decline your application.

We need your information to:

- verify your identity, and
- assist the Minister of Internal Affairs to decide whether you qualify for a grant of New Zealand citizenship.

We collect and hold information from this form at the Department of Internal Affairs, PO Box 10680, Wellington. Under the Privacy Act 2020 you can request access to and correction of the personal information we hold about you.

The information collected in your application may be used in statistical analysis and reporting for service improvement and business management purposes. Personal information will only be used where necessary for those purposes.

Data is stored, accessed and retained in accordance with our Privacy Policy, Information Management Policy, and the DIA Code of Conduct which incorporates our ICT and security policies, and in compliance with the Privacy Act 2020 and the Public Records Act 2005.

Information sharing

The Department of Internal Affairs (DIA) relies on the Identity Services Approved Information Sharing Agreement (IS AISA) to access information relating to your birth, death, marriage, name change, civil union and passport when verifying your identity.

DIA relies on the Customer Nominated Services Approved Information Sharing Agreement (CNS AISA) to share information with Immigration New Zealand (INZ) to verify your identity and confirm eligibility requirements are met for a grant of New Zealand citizenship.

DIA may share your citizenship information once you have been granted citizenship with other government agencies. Full details of DIA's information-sharing practices are available on our website: dia.govt.nz/Legal-Privacy-Index

Fees statement

Disclaimer

The questions above are based on the legal requirements for citizenship by grant. The result is only a general indicator to give you an idea of your eligibility. The questions do not form part of the formal application or assessment process.

A formal assessment of your ability to meet each relevant requirement will be carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs if you apply for citizenship. The results of the questions above are not legal advice. For more information, read the rest of the guide notes on page 1 to page 4.

Checklist

Before you bring or send us your application, make sure you have everything you need.

You must provide original documents — not copies.

All original documents will be returned to you.

If you do not provide all the original documents that you need to, your application will be delayed.

If you are unable to give us these documents, you will need to explain why in a letter with your application.

What you need to send:

- ☐ your full birth certificate, or equivalent
- ☐ all your current passports, travel documents or equivalent (or most recent if it has expired)
- ☐ 2 passport-style photos that your witness has signed, dated and written your name on the back of 1 of the photos
- ☐ filled out payment details in question 38 on page 19 (application fee is $470.20 per adult).

You might also need to send these documents:

- ☐ if you have changed your name, all your marriage, civil union, divorce, name change, or adoption documents that prove your names
- ☐ proof you were physically present in New Zealand on 14 September 1982
- ☐ if you do not hold a Samoan passport, evidence of Samoan citizenship
- ☐ anything else we should know that might affect your application.

If your documents are not in English, you may also need:

- ☐ authorised translations of your documents (if your documents are not in English and you already have an authorised translation, provide the translation with the original document).

If you do not have an authorised translation, provide your original documents and we will arrange for them to be translated. There is no charge for this unless you require a copy of the translation for your own purposes. If you require a copy of the translation, download a T100 Request for translation form from govt.nz/request-for-translation and include this with your application.

If you have already registered as a New Zealand citizen by descent and want to change your status to citizen by grant you need to bring in or send:

- ☐ your original New Zealand citizenship by descent certificate.

24. Do you require any special assistance so you can attend an interview or citizenship ceremony?

This could include needing access for a wheelchair, or help if you are hearing impaired.

- ☐ Yes ► Provide details below.
- ☐ No

Special assistance details

Section 5: Additional information

25. Is there anything else we should know that might affect your application?

For example:

- any matters that are unclear about your identity
- if you have ever been deported from New Zealand or any other country.

☐ Yes ► Provide details below.

☐ No

Additional information

26. Is someone helping you to interpret, translate or fill in this form?

This is a legal declaration, so the person who is helping you to interpret, translate or fill in the form must be aged 16 years or over. Fill in their details below. They must sign the declaration in question 27.

☐ Yes ► Continue to question 27.

☐ No ► Go to Section 6 on page 15.

27. Details and declaration of person who helped applicant interpret, translate or fill out this form

First and middle names

Surname or family name

Contact phone number

Email address

I declare that I assisted the applicant to complete this application. I confirm that I truly and faithfully interpreted and translated all questions in the application form, together with the answers given by the applicant and all other things that I have been required to interpret and translate.

Signature of assistant (sign by hand)

Date signed (dd/mm/yyyy)

Section 6: Applicant declaration

Warning: It is an offence under the Citizenship Act 1977 and/or the Citizenship (Western Samoa) Act 1982 to knowingly or recklessly give false information or conceal any facts for the purpose of gaining New Zealand citizenship for oneself or on behalf of someone else. If you do so, you may be denied or lose New Zealand citizenship. You may also face criminal charges.

- I confirm that I am a Samoan citizen.
- I understand this application and warning.
- The documents provided for this application are genuine and unaltered.
- I understand that becoming a New Zealand citizen may affect my present citizenship.
- I understand that if I do not provide sufficient information to enable a claim to New Zealand citizenship, my application may be declined.
- If there is any change in my circumstances that affects the answers I have given in this application, I will send written advice to the Department of Internal Affairs up until the point I have received my citizenship certificate.
- I confirm that I have read and understood the guide notes.
- I authorise the release by any government agency of personal information that may assist the Minister of Internal Affairs to decide whether I qualify for the grant of citizenship. I recognise that this information may be provided by agencies including, but not limited to: New Zealand Police, Inland Revenue, New Zealand Customs Service, Immigration New Zealand, Ministry of Social Development, Passport Office, Births, Deaths and Marriages Registry, Ministry of Justice.
- I authorise the Department of Internal Affairs to release my name and address to my local Member of Parliament and local councillors so they can formally welcome me to New Zealand following my grant of citizenship.
